JOFF LOWSON TRIO

American Folk Roots | Bluegrass-influenced
Location: UK
Format: Trio (Banjo, Guitar, Double Bass, Vocals)

ABOUT

The Joff Lowson Trio is an upbeat, immersive American folk-roots band with strong bluegrass influences. Formed through the Bristol bluegrass scene, the trio blends traditional Appalachian sounds with warmth, humour, and high-level musicianship, creating lively, welcoming performances that connect deeply with audiences.

THE BAND

Joff Lowson – Banjo, Lead Vocals
Mike Pryor – Double Bass, Vocals
Dave Brown – Guitar, Vocals

UPCOMING SHOWS

Fri 16th January The Star, Fishponds, Bristol
Sat 17th January Harry's Cider, Long Sutton, Somerset Fri 6th February the Old School Room, Chew Magna, Somerset
Thurs 23rd April The Fringe, Clifton, Bristol
Sun 26th April the Cider Barn, Draycott, Somerset
Thursday 6th August Girt Dog festival, Langport, Somerset

SHORT BIO

Joff Lowson was born in Alabama and raised on traditional Appalachian music before moving to Glastonbury, England. A lifelong banjo player and songwriter, his work blends Americana, folk, and bluegrass, exploring life's deeper truths with irony and warmth. He has performed at Glastonbury, WOMAD, Cambridge Folk Festival, and Shrewsbury, received support from BBC Radio 1 and BBC Radio 5 Live, and appeared on Later… with Jools Holland alongside Sid Griffin.

Mike Pryor is best known for his work with UK Celtic/folk/world-fusion group Skin The Peelers and for leading Sore Fingers, a respected bluegrass and old-time music event. He has performed extensively on the UK festival circuit, including Glastonbury, and contributed to numerous acoustic projects.

Dave Brown is a guitarist and vocalist known for his involvement in the street/folk project Swervy World, bringing strong rhythm and roots-driven energy to the trio.

HIGHLIGHTS

Bluegrass and Americana-influenced folk
Festival-proven act
Warm, engaging live performances
BBC radio support

RADIO PLAY

REVIEW

MUSIC

All THE BANANAS (Single)

FIRE ON THE HILLSIDE (Single)

Facebook

Instagram

Spotify

Itunes

Youtube

Contact@jofflowson.com